A new line of handsome paperies and tablets at the Sun office.

George Babbitt, who has been in Los Angeles, Cal., since the first of the year, returned Wednesday.

James R. Hance returned last week from a visit to his former Missouri home. He is much improved in health.

L. W. Quinlan left yesterday for Cave Creek to watch the shearing of the sheep belonging to the firm of Milbourn & Quinlan.

Mrs. Dillman, of Las Vegas, N. M., on her way home from California, spent a day here this week with Mrs. J. C. Milligan.

J. W. Kraemer, of Ash Fork, and Miss Anna I. Burke, of Prescott, were married Wednesday evening Rev. Vabre officiating.

Bert Blair has been appointed clerk of the probate court by Judge A. E. Douglass, vice Warren Perkins, who resigned to take a position at Phoenix.

Fred Hensing, husband of former Mrs. Jules Aubineau, who with the latter's family is now living in Los Angeles, Cal., was in town this week on business.

E. S. Gosney, a prominent citizen of Coconino county, and an officer of the Arizona Wool Growers' association, is in the city on business.—Phoenix Republican.

B. H. Hocking writes from Cave creek that the camp is lively and that 100,000 head of sheep will be sheared there. A few days ago Roxie Duncan got his big toe cut off by the engine of the shearing plant.

H. C. Hibben returned Wednesday from Phoenix, where he had been to purchase a band of goats. The goats proved to be not up to the standard required, and he returned goatless. He is still looking for goats, and aspires to be the goat king of Arizona.

Fogg's chemical chalk, a new departure in glove cleaning, no bad odor, no trouble in cleaning any color, and the simplest article ever offered to the public. There is no chemical that can possibly injure any color. It also removes grease, paint and tar. For sale at Sun Stationery Department. tf

Farewell to Mr. Young.

Last Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Boyle entertained a few of the intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. Young at cards. Progressive high five was the game played, and all present report a most enjoyable evening. Mrs. Young won the lady's prize, a beautiful hand-painted plate. Scott Linn and John Alexander tied for the gentleman's prize. The cards were cut to see who should have the prize, and Mr. Alexander won by one point. The gentleman's prize was a very handsome stick pin. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Young and Mrs. Young's sister, Miss Delia Wray, left Wednesday morning for San Bernardino, Cal., and the best wishes of all go with them.

The Georgia Minstrels.

In order to appreciate the importance of the claims of the managers of Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels, that they have the largest and best equipped minstrel show ever given by negro talent, a visit to the opera house on Saturday, February 17, will convince the most critical judges that they have eclipsed all former seasons in the way of novelties. Ever on the alert to grasp opportunities they have brought together an entire new company, from the property man up to the leading artists, only retaining from former seasons the famous Clarence Powell. All others are new faces, and a program of rare excellence is promised.
